17.1.2 Summary: December 14, 2006 Ontario Board Chairs Meeting with Minister

B. Bartlett reported that she attended this meeting where the Minister Kathleen Wynne spoke to Board Chairs on numerous topics including the trend with declining enrolment, the status of Ontario boards demonstrating surplus, balanced or deficit budgets. Student achievement and the Directors' of Education accountability in this area was also a focused discussion. She advised Board members that she addressed the Minister on the subject of challenges faced by small boards in light of declining enrolment and the fact the in northwestern Ontario there is a serious downturn in the forestry sector and non-renewable resource industry such as mining. She said she stressed the need for adult retraining and situation that declining enrolment may contribute to classroom configurations that could see triple and quadruple grades result.

17.2 Correspondence

B. Bartlett advised she is in receipt of a survey released by the Citizen's Panel on Organ Donation which boards have been asked to complete if they are amendable. A copy of the survey will be forwarded by administration to all trustees who wish to complete the document.
