POLICY

It is the policy of Superior-Greenstone District School Board (SGDSB) to promote equity and inclusive education. The board endeavours to create and maintain harmonious learning and work environments as well as promotes equity of access and outcomes for all students in accordance with the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and Ontario Human Rights Code. Discrimination in the receipt of education and in employment at SGDSB, because of race, ethnic origin, place of origin, ancestry, citizenship, colour, religion/creed, marital status, family status, sex, sexual orientation, gender expression, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, disability, is prohibited. In addition, SGDSB promotes inclusion for students experiencing barriers due to socio-economic status. This Policy establishes eight areas of focus for this endeavour.

At Superior-Greenstone District School Board, we believe that all students can learn and our goal is to enable each and every student to learn effectively, to reduce achievement disparities and to improve learning outcomes for all, regardless of race, class, gender, ethnicity, disability, sexual orientation and other historical forms of marginalization¹.

The Board upholds the principles of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms enshrined in the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, the Constitution Act, 1982 and confirmed in the Ontario Human Rights Code (the "Code"). The Board and its staff are also committed to the elimination of all types of discrimination as outlined in Ontario's Equity and Inclusive Education Strategy (the "Strategy") and the Ontario Ministry of Education (the "Ministry") Policy/Program Memorandum No. 119.

The Board recognizes that equity of access and equity of outcomes to the full range of programs, the delivery of services, and resources are critical to the achievement of successful educational and social outcomes for those served by the school system as well as those who serve the system.

GUIDING PRINCIPLES

Superior-Greenstone District School Board recognizes that equity and inclusive education:

- Is a foundation of excellence - in a diverse society, equity is a fundamental requirement for educational excellence and high standards of student achievement;

- Identifies and eliminates barriers - all students are supported equitably through the identification and removal of discriminatory barriers that limit their ability to achieve to their full potential;
- Promotes a sense of belonging - equity and inclusive education contribute to every student's sense of well-being;
- Involves the broader community - effective and meaningful school-community partnerships are an essential component of an equitable and inclusive education system;
- Builds on and enhances previous and existing initiatives - sound research and analysis of successful policies and practices form the basis for the development and sharing of resources; and
- Is demonstrated throughout the system – SGDSB will incorporate equity and inclusive education throughout policies, procedures and practices.

AREAS OF FOCUS

1. BOARD POLICIES, PROGRAMS, GUIDELINES AND PRACTICES

Superior-Greenstone District School Board will serve staff, students, and families in diverse communities by incorporating the principles of equity and inclusive education into all aspects of its operations, structures, policies, programs, procedures, guidelines, and practices, consistent with the principles of the Code.

Superior-Greenstone District School Board will review this commitment as part of the development and regular review of policies, procedures, and practices. This area of focus establishes the framework for policy development and implementation in all the other areas of focus.

Superior-Greenstone District School Board will endeavour to promote equity of access and outcomes for student achievement and well-being. The Board aims to identify and address the expertise of their partners to explore innovative ways of sharing resources that can help them meet the diverse needs of students and provide new and relevant learning opportunities.

4. INCLUSIVE CURRICULUM AND ASSESSMENT PRACTICES

Superior-Greenstone District School Board will implement an inclusive curriculum and to review resources, instruction, and assessment and evaluation practices in order to identify and address discrimination so that each student may achieve their learning potential.

Students need to feel engaged by what they are learning, supported by staff and welcome in the learning environment. The Ministry of Education provides curriculum to all boards in Ontario. The Board will review resources, instruction, and assessment/evaluation practices to ensure they are in accordance with the guiding principles. Superior-Greenstone District School Board is committed to identifying and implementing inclusive curriculum supported by resources, instructional strategies and assessment and evaluation practices that reflect and respond to the diverse needs and abilities of learners.
